SECTION 7: For each place at which any business is carried on, a separate license shall be paid, and any person desiring to engage in any trade, business, profession or occupation for which a license is or may be required, shall designate the place at which such trade or business or occupation or profession is carried on, and the license to be issued shall designate such place, and such license shall authorize the carrying on of such trade, business, occupation or profession only at the place designated, unless the licensee shall be granted permission by the City Council of the City of Prichard to move his place of business, trade, occupation or profession to another place in the city and in that event such permission shall be endorsed by the License Officer on such license.

SECTION 8: Any person dealing in two or more of the articles, or engaging in two or more of the business, vocations, occupations or professions for which a license is required by the provisions of this ordinance, shall take out and pay for the license for each line of business, vocation, occupation or profession.

SECTION 9: No license shall be required of any doctor, dentist, physician, surgeon, lawyer, engineer, architect, or anyone engaged in a similar profession, for the first two years succeeding his admission to the practice of his profession. The two year exemption herein provided shall date from the first admission to practice no matter where such first admission takes place.

SECTION 10: That there is hereby imposed, assessed and levied upon each person, firm, association or corporation doing business or trading or carrying on any business, trade, occupation or profession by him or itself, or by an agent or agents or otherwise, outside the corporate limits of the City of Prichard but within the police jurisdiction thereof, one-half the license tax imposed and assessed for doing the like business or trading or carrying on the like trade, occupation or profession within the corporate limits of the City of Prichard, nothing in this section shall be construed as permitting any person, firm, association or corporation doing business or trading or carrying on the like trade, occupation or profession within the corporate limits of the City of Prichard to pay only half license, and the foregoing provision for the half license shall apply only where the licensee does not engage in business or carry on his profession in the corporate limits. It is the purpose of this section to license for police, fire and health protection only, and not for revenue.

SECTION 11: The term "person" as used in this Code shall include an individual, a corporation, a partnership, an association, a joint stock company, a business trust, an unincorporated organization and any other entity.

SECTION 12: Where the amount of the license is based upon the gross receipts, the term "gross receipts" shall mean the entire receipts of the business, vocation, occupation or profession engaged in, including all receipts from sales regardless of the place where the sales was solicited, or place where the contract of sale was consummated or the place of delivery, and shall include the amount of any federal excise tax imposed on sales by retailers, and shall not contemplate any deductions for any purpose not specifically provided for.

SECTION 13: Where the amount of license is based upon gross sales the term "gross sales:" shall mean all sales, whether for cash, on time or for credit and shall not contemplate any deduction for any purpose not specifically provided for, and shall mean all sales regardless of the place where the sale was solicited, or place where the contract of sale was consummated, or the place of delivery.

SECTION 14: Where the amount of the license is based upon the gross annual business, the term "gross annual business" shall mean the gross receipts of the business and shall not contemplate any deductions for any purpose not specifically provided for.

SECTION 15: (a) In all cases where the amount of license tax is dependent upon the amount of business done, amount of sales, receipts, value of furniture and other equipment, stock, capital invested, number of helpers or employees, amount of space occupied, or any factor or factors whatsoever either of the same kind as the foregoing enumerations or of a different kind therefrom, it shall be the duty of the person subject to such tax to render to the License Officer, on or prior to the date when such tax becomes due, a sworn statement showing the total business done, amount of sales, receipts, stock, value of furniture and other equipment, capital invest, number of helpers or employees, amount of space occupied, or other factor or factors herein above mentioned, one or several, as the case may require for the ascertainment of the classification of such person for license taxation purposes and the correct amount of license tax to which he is subject. Any person, firm, association or corporation required to furnish such sworn statement, and who shall fail or refuse to furnish the same, or who shall give any false statement in regard to the amount or value of the goods or stocks or the amount of the sales or receipts or gross income upon which any license is based or fixed shall be guilty of an offense against the City of Prichard and shall upon conviction be fined not less than $100.00 nor more than $300.00 exceeding six months.

(b) Upon receipt of license tax based upon the classification of such person as shown by such sworn statement, the License Officer shall issue appropriate license, but the issuance and grant thereof is expressly conditional upon the truth and accuracy of such sworn statement and the same shall be revocable by the Municipal Court, upon a complaint filed by the License Officer, whenever it shall be made to satisfactorily appear to said Court that the said sworn statement is false or incorrect or that the holder of such license has not paid to the City of Prichard the correct amount of license tax.

(c) Upon demand by the License Officer, or same's authorized deputy auditor, or representative, it shall be the duty of any person holding a license from the City of Prichard to throw open to said License Officer, or same's authorized deputy, auditor or representative, during the business hours, all portions of his place or places of business for the purpose of enabling said License Officer, or same's authorized deputy, auditor or representative, to ascertain and gain such information as may be necessary or convenient for determination of the proper classification of such license holder for license taxation purposes and determination of the correct amount of license tax to which such person is subject, and upon demand by the License Officer, or same's authorized deputy, auditor or representative, it shall also be the duty of any person holding a license from the City of Prichard to furnish such License Officer or his authorized deputy, auditor or representative, all such information as may be required for determination of the proper classification of such license holder for license taxation purposes and determination of the correct amount of license tax to which such person is subject, and to that end it shall be the duty of such person to submit to the License Officer, or same's authorized deputy, auditor or representative, for inspection and examination, during reasonable business hours, at such person's place of business, in the City of Prichard or the police jurisdiction thereof, all books of account, invoices, papers, reports and memoranda containing entries showing amount of purchases, sales receipts, inventory and other information from which the correct license tax classification of such person may be ascertained and the correct amount of license tax to which he is subject be determined including the exhibition of Bank deposit books, and bank statements, copies of Sales Tax Reports to the State of Alabama, copies of Alabama Income Tax Reports and Federal Income Tax Reports. It shall be unlawful for any license holder, or for any servant, agent or employee of such license holder, to fail or refuse to perform and duty herein imposed upon such license holder, or to obstruct or interfere with the License Officer, or same's authorized deputy, auditor, or representative, in obtaining information necessary or convenient for determination of the proper license classification of such license holder.

(d) Where the amount of license required to be paid for engaging in any business is graduated according to the amount of business, or the amount of gross receipts, gross purchases, gross sales, or according to the amount or value of stock on hand, and where the maximum flat sum which shall be paid as a license is provided for engaging in such business, any person engaging in such business shall be liable for the maximum license provided for engaging in such business, unless he has in his possession the records, books, papers and reports necessary to determine the classification to which he belongs, and unless he exhibits the same for inspection as required by this section unless the same disclose that the person belongs in a classification lower than the classification required to pay the maximum license. Where the amount of license required to be paid for engaging in any business is graduated according to the amount of business, or the amount of gross receipts, gross purchases, gross sales, or according to the amount or value of stock on hand, and where no maximum flat sum which shall be paid for engaging business is provided for, then is such event if the holder of a license of the City of Prichard have not in his possession or under his control in Prichard true and intelligible books of account, invoices, papers, reports or memoranda correctly reflecting the date and information necessary for determination of the classification to which he belongs for assessment of correct amount of license tax, or if, having in his possession under his control such books, invoices, papers, reports and/or memoranda, he shall fail or refuse to submit and exhibit the same for inspection and examination as required by this section, or if he shall fail or refuse to throw open any portion of his place or places of business to the License Officer or same's authorized deputy, auditor or representative, as in this section required, then and in either of said events it shall be the duty of the License Officer to ascertain the license tax classification such person from the best information and data obtainable and to assess against such person the correct license tax according to the classification thus ascertained. When the classification of such person and the amount of license tax due from him shall have been ascertained and fixed by the License Officer, it shall be the duty of the License Officer to mail to such person notice of his determination and to demand of such person immediate payment of the amount of tax ascertained to be due from him, less and amount such person may be heretofore paid upon the tax due from him. If the amount of tax demanded be not paid within ten days of the mailing of such demand the License Officer shall notify such person by registered mail that a complaint will be filed in the Municipal Court of the City of Prichard for revocation of such person's license. At the time and place so specified by the Municipal Court of the City of Prichard such person shall appear before the court in person and by counsel, one or both, and show cause, if any there be, why said license should not be revoked. Upon any such hearing, and for all other purposes, the decision and determination of the License Officer as to classification and the amount of license tax due shall be deemed correct and final, unless and until it shall be shown by satisfactory evidence that such decision and determination is incorrect. If from all the evidence the court is of the opinion that the tax is either too high or too low, it shall render a judgment fixing such tax as it may deem fit. The Prichard Municipal Court shall so far as practicable hear cases brought hereunder according to general rules and procedures of courts, but, when acting under this ordinance it shall have no power to enjoin or suspend the collection of any taxes due.

Where the licensee sells beer and/or spiritous and vinous liquors, and intermingles the receipts from such sales with receipts from his other business, without keeping a separate intelligible record of each the beer and/or spiritous and vinous liquor sales, it shall be the duty of the License Officer to use the best information same can obtain and therefrom make a reasonable estimate of the receipts from the beer and/or spiritous and vinous liquor sales; same estimate is to be final as to the total amount of receipts or sales allowable to beer and/or spiritous and vinous liquors, except the licensee through written application to the License Department may request a hearing before the City Council for the purpose of reviewing the License Officer's estimate, and the City Council then making a final fixation of the allowable amount of receipts from the sale of beer and/or spiritous and vinous liquors, to be used in the final computation of the various licenses due by the licensee.

(e) It shall be unlawful for any person connected with the administration of this section to divulge any information obtained by him in the course of inspection and examination of the books, papers, reports and memoranda of the taxpayer made pursuant to the provisions of this exception, except to the City Council, the License Officer or same's Deputy, the City Attorney, or others connected with the administration of this section.

(f) For the purpose of enabling the License Officer to determine (1) whether or not there is any liability for payment of a license tax, (2) the proper classification, or (3) the correct amount of license tax due, it shall be the duty of any person engaged in or carrying on any business, vocation or profession in the City of Prichard or its Police Jurisdiction, upon demand to the License Officer, same's Deputy, auditor or representative, to permit inspection during business hours of all portions of his place of business, to furnish by sworn statement or otherwise all information requested bearing on the character of the business engaged in, the amount of capital invested therein, and the dollar amount of the business transacted, and to make available for inspection and examination during business hours all books of accounts, invoices, papers, reports and memoranda relating to said business, or showing the amount of purchases, sales receipts, inventory, and such other information, necessary for a determination of tax liability, classification, or amount of tax, as may be demanded, including bank deposit books, bank statements, copies of sales tax reports to the State of Alabama and of state and federal income tax returns. It shall be unlawful for any person, or any such agent, servant or employee of such person, to fail or refuse to perform any duty herein imposed upon such person or obstruct or interfere with the License Officer's or same's authorized Deputy, auditor or representative in carrying out the purpose of this subdivision. Each day's failure or refusal to perform any duty herein imposed shall constitute a separate offense.

SECTION 16: In every case where the amount of a license is by this ordinance made to depend on the amount capital invested, or value of goods or stocks, or amount of sales, receipts, income or earnings, this ordinance (except where otherwise specified) shall be held to refer, in the case of capital invested an stock on hand, to the average amount of stock on hand (estimated at invoice prices during the next preceding year, and in the case of sales, receipts, income or earnings, to the amount of such sales, receipts, income or earnings during the next preceding year. Where the person, fir, corporation or association liable or applying for any license did not engage in or carry on such business, occupation or vacation in the City of Prichard (or in the case of license for doing business in the police jurisdiction - in said police jurisdiction) during the preceding year, then before engaging in or doing any business, the person, firm or corporation so liable for applying for license, shall pay the minimum amount prescribed as license for the particular business, trace or occupation, and the License Officer shall issue a receipt as for a part payment o account of the License, and within two months thereafter the said person, firm or corporation shall make a sworn return to the License Officer of the average amount of capital invested or stock on hand, or as the case may be, of the sales, receipts, income or earnings of such person, firm or corporation during said two months, and shall then pay the License Officer such additional amount for license as may be arrived at by taking the average amount of capital invested or stock on hand, or as the case may be, of sales, receipts, income earnings for the said two months and multiplying that basic, and applying thereto the same rate or scale of license fixed for those who did the same business or carried on the same trade in the City during the preceding year. Upon payment of such additional amount, the license shall be issued.

SECTION 17: No provision of this Code shall be applied: (a) so as to impose any unlawful tax or unlawful burden on interstate commerce or on any activity of the State or Federal Governments; or (b) in any manner which is repugnant to or violates any provision of the United States or Alabama Constitutions.

SECTION 18: That all licenses not paid within sixty days from the date they fall due, shall be increased by twenty five percent (25%) but no license shall be increased by more than fifty percent (50%) after July 1, because of delinquent payment thereof, but this provision shall not be deemed to authorize the delay of sixty days in the payment of the license due, which may be enforced at once. In the case of a person, firms or associations who began business after the first of the calendar year, the license for such "new business" shall be increased by twenty five percent (25%) if the license is not paid for within fifteen days after the beginning of such business. Should the license remain unpaid for six months a fifty percent (50%) penalty will be added, provided that no penalty for delinquent payment under this sentence shall exceed the sum of fifty percent (50%) of the license fee, if delinquent, plus $5.00 citation 50%.

SECTION 19: That all of the licenses due the City of Prichard whatsoever character shall be collected by the License Officer; it shall also be same's duty to keep a correct register of all such licenses. The License Officer shall notify all delinquents of their delinquency, and upon failure of those so notified to procure their license, the License Officer, or his deputy shall swear out warrants against the same.

SECTION 20: That any person, firm association or corporation, who shall engage in any business, trade or profession, or keep any establishment, or do any business or any act for which a license is required by the foregoing ordinance, without having first obtained such license, shall, upon conviction, for each day such business, trade or profession or such establishment is kept or carried on and for each act so done, without such license, be fined not less than one hundred nor more than three hundred dollars, ($300.00) and may also be sentenced to imprisonment for not exceeding six months or both.

SECTION 21: Any person who (after any license or privilege tax fixed by this ordinance becomes delinquent) acts as agent for any person, firm, corporation or association liable under this ordinance or any section thereof to the payment of all license or privilege tax carrying on the business for which his principal is required to pay such license, shall be guilty of an offense againsts the City of Prichard and shall upon conviction be fined not less than $100.00 nor more than $300.00, and may also be sentenced to imprisonment by the recorder or Judge trying the case, for not exceeding six months.

SECTION 22: On all property, both, real and personal, used in any exhibition, trade, business, vocation, occupation or profession for which a license is or may be required, the City of Prichard shall have a lien for such license, which lie shall attach as of date when the license is due, and shall be superior to all other liens, except the lien of the state and County, and U.S. Government for taxes, and the lien of the State of and County of License. Such lien may be permitted by the laws of Alabama.

SECTION 23: Every license shall be posted in a conspicuous place, where said business, trade or occupation is carried on, and the holder of the license shall immediately sow same to the License Officer or same's Deputy, or to any police officer of the City upon being requested so to do.

SECTION 24: That if any section or provision of this ordinance shall be held invalid, such holding shall not affect nor invalidate any other section or provision hereof.

SECTION 25: Any person found guilty of violation of any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be fined in an amount not exceeding the sum of $ _____ may also be sentenced to hard labor for the City or to imprisonment in the City Jail for a period of not exceeding six months, one or both, in the discretion of the Court trying the case.

SECTION 26: The adoption of this ordinance shall not in any manner affect any prosecution actually begun or the right to institute the prosecution of any act illegally done contrary to the provisions of any ordinance now or heretofore in existence, and every such prosecution, whether begun before or after the enactment of this ordinance shall be governed by the law under which the offense was committed; nor shall a prosecution or enforcement of any forfeiture be in any manner affected by the adoption of this ordinance; nor shall any civil action or cause of action existing prior to or at the time of the adoption of this ordinance be affected in any manner by its adoption.

SECTION 27: That this ordinance, on its adoption and publication, shall be effective and operative on and after January 1st, 1990.

SECTION 28: The agents or other representatives or non-residents who are doing business in this City shall be personally responsible for the compliance of their principals, and of the businesses they represent, with the provisions of this License Code.

SECTION 29: Any license issued hereunder may be revoked or suspended by the Municipal Court of the City of Prichard, for a term not exceeding the term of such license, when said court shall be satisfied that such licensee is doing business in violation of any penal law of the State of Alabama, City of Prichard or one or more of the provisions hereunder.

SECTION 30: It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to do business within the City Prichard or within its police jurisdiction without having obtained from the License Officer a license under this Ordinance, and it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation whose license has been revoked or suspended in accordance with Sections 27 and 28 hereof to do business within the City of Prichard or within its police jurisdiction so long as such revocation or suspension shall remain in effect. Each day any violation of the provisions of this section shall continue shall constitute a separate offense.

SECTION 31: The continued or recurrent performance or any act or acts within the corporate limits of the City of Prichard or within its police jurisdiction for which a license issued by the City of Prichard may be revoked or suspended under the provisions of this Ordinance is hereby declared to be detrimental to the health, safety, comfort, and convenience of the public and is a nuisance. The City of Prichard, as an additional or alternative remedy, may institute injunction proceedings, in a court of competent jurisdiction to abate the same.

SECTION 32: It is hereby declared to be the intention of the City Council that the sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses and phrases of this Ordinance are severable, and if any phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph or section of this Ordinance shall be declared unconstitutional by the valid judgment or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction, such unconstitutionality shall not affect any of the remaining phrases, clauses, sentences, paragraphs and sections of this Ordinance, since the same would have been enacted by the City Council without the incorporation in this Ordinance of any such unconstitutional phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph or section.

SECTION 33: No license shall be issued hereunder unless and until the person making application therefor shall first show satisfactory proof that any and all health and safety permits required by any permitting authority for the type of trade, vocation, occupation, business or profession for which application for license hereunder has been obtained. If it is brought to the attention of the License Officer that any such permit for which any license hereunder has been contingently issued has been revoked, suspended or withdrawn, the License Officer shall file a complaint in the Municipal Court of the City of Prichard for revocation of the person's license. At the time and place specified by the Municipal Court of the City of Prichard, such person shall appear before said court in person and by counsel, one or both, and show cause, if any there be, why said license should not be revoked. If upon any such hearing it is determined by the court that any a license hereunder has been contingently issued for which revoked and not reinstated, the court shall render a judgment revoking the license issued hereunder.
